

Important Update to Cohort Weekly Lesson Streams

Due to sponsorship changes, CL-150 Cohort lesson streams, other than higher level Mandarin, will begin re-issuing past lessons starting July 12. Mandarin Chinese Cohort lesson streams at ILR 2+, 3, and now 3+ will receive a new lesson every week.

All Cohort subscribers will continue to receive a weekly lesson every Monday, either new or chosen from the previous six months of the Cohort lessons. Most languages and levels also have hundreds of additional CL-150 Cohort lessons available via the Browse tab.

Over the last five years, CL-150 Cohort lesson streams have become a key resource for USG on-the-job language sustainment and enhancement, and we recognize the importance many programs place on this service.
