CL-150 lessons are designed to use on your own and with an instructor.

Our tutors are trained to turn each learning activity into an opportunity to expand your knowledge and practice communicating in the language.

Here are a few of their favorite activities to build upon.

Text Presentation

On your own, you can read the text and listen to the accompanying audio as many times as needed to comprehend the text.

The screenshot displays the CL-150 Platform interface for a German text presentation lesson. The header includes the CL-150 logo, a mobile access icon, and a learning portal dropdown. The main title is "German • Text Presentation" with a progress bar at 0% complete. The lesson content is titled "Unit 30, Lesson 03, Reading: Interview with the Bundespolizei". The text describes a radio reporter's live interview with Lars Becker, a representative of the Bundespolizei, regarding the "Tag der Offenen Tür" (Open Door Day) in Potsdam. The text includes a question from a journalist about the Bundespolizei's mission compared to the FBI in the USA, and Mr. Becker's response detailing their responsibilities in border security, aviation security, and maritime security. At the bottom, there is an audio player with a progress bar at 0:49 / 3:11 and a green "DONE" button.

Our German tutor Christina asks her students to build upon this activity by...

- summarizing the text in their own words
- differentiating the key ideas vs. the minor supporting details
- changing the tense of the text to practice grammar

Preview It

On your own, you can get familiar with key words and phrases from the lesson text by reading and listening to selected vocabulary.

Our Arabic tutor Micheline helps students get more from this activity by...

- using each word in a sentence
- changing the form of words (conjugating, adjective agreements, etc.)
- discussing synonyms, antonyms, and expressions that contain the word

Reading/Listening Comprehension

On your own, you can read or listen to the text and answer the multiple-choice questions to check your comprehension of key concepts.

Our Spanish tutor Maria asks her tutoring students to expand on this by...

- answering the open-ended questions out loud

- coming up with their own comprehension questions to elicit specific information from the text
- debating the subject covered from different perspectives

CL-150 Connect tutors can help you dig deeper, interact with your lessons in new ways, and use what you're learning in conversation.
