

Northern vs. Southern Hemisphere English Challenge

Circle 'N' for Northern Hemisphere or American English.
Circle 'S' for Southern Hemisphere or Kiwi/Aussie English.

N/S Howdy.

N/S G'day.

N/S Vege for sale.

N/S Veggies for sale.

N/S Can I have a wee bit more?

N/S Can I have a little more?

N/S Dogs must be on a leash.

N/S Dogs must be on a lead.

N/S We are hiring chippies and tradies.

N/S We are hiring carpenters and tradesmen?

N/S We had a small quarrel.

N/S They had a bit of a row.

N/S Don't mess with the fire.

N/S Don't muck about with that fire.

N/S Which frock is Chelsea wearing?

N/S Which gown is Chelsea wearing?

N/S Let's go to Mickey D's for lunch.

N/S Let's go to Macca's for lunch.

N/S I need to buy a new pair of sunnies.

N/S I need to buy a new pair of shades.

N/S I recon John needs a new car.

N/S I think John needs a new car.

N/S Get bundled up for the weather before you go out.

N/S Get rugged up for the weather before you go out.

N/S Do you know where my red jumper is?

N/S Do you know where my red sweater is?

N/S When is Hamish's bachelors party?

N/S When is Hamish's stag do?

N/S Serving brekkie all day.

N/S Serving breakfast all day.

N/S My brother just built a new fancy house.

N/S My brother just built a new flash house.

N/S The recipe calls for 4 slices of bacon.

N/S The recipe calls for 4 rashes of bacon.

N/S 100 calories per serving.

N/S 100 calories per serve.